Volume two of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain. It lists all secondary source material including reference works, in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian.

Excerpt from First Baptist Church, Durham, N. C., Year Book, 1913 The congregation entered the new house on Cleveland Street in 1854. Rev. Jesse Howell was the first pastor here, and at this period it was customary to call a pastor for one year at a time. This custom Was abolished in 1876. In 1867, the third Sunday in April, the Sunday School was organized. As the City grew larger, the church organized other Sunday Schools, from which, in most instances, strong Baptist churches have sprung. The mother church has always taken the liveliest interest in these churches; having secured the ground, and, for the most part, furnished the money for each when the time came to erect a building. Some people collect stamps. Some people collect coins. Some people collect art. And Jerome? Jerome collected words . . . In this extraordinary new tale from Peter H. Reynolds, Jerome discovers the magic of the words all around him -- short and sweet words, two-syllable treats, and multisyllable words that sound like little songs. Words that connect, transform, and empower. From the creator of The Dot and Happy Dreamer comes a celebration of finding your own words -- and the impact you can have when you share them with the world.
