The basic premise of Hire Power is that the world of work is in a state of flux and fluidity as never before, and this is only increasing. The changes to work caused by technology, current high levels of employment and, crucially, a younger generation entering the workplace that expects to move jobs every couple of years, means that HR strategies based on the assumption of a static workforce are missing the target.

Corporate recruiting is an interesting field. There are no books entitled The Theory of Recruiting or Principles of Strategic Recruiting. As a result, most individuals in recruiting tend to make it up as they go rather than follow a more defined set of rules or principles. There is no formal body in recruiting that 'codifies' the established practices. In this article, I am attempting to help ...
